Teacher

Jen Jostyn Goldyn is new to Maui and is so happy to now live here with her husband and their two daughters. Trained in classical ballet from the age of 5, Jen received her high school degree from the esteemed Walnut Hill School of Performing Arts where she studied drama, musical theatre, and dance.

After college, she spent her 20s dancing around the globe, including shows in Puerto Rico, New York, and Japan; and she even had the rare opportunity to dance next to Madonna in a Pepsi commercial! Jen's career shifted from dance to acting when she co-starred in The Brothers McMullen, a movie that won the Grand Jury Prize at The Sundance Film Festival. She then moved from New York to Los Angeles where she worked as an actress for two decades, but she continued to teach dance
